DADA-DAYS SPAIN

dada-days has made its name as the go-to platform for anyone looking to get creative on the Mediterranean island of Mallorca. Whether it's pottery, textile arts, fused glass, or analogue photography – dada-days founder, Lisa Heschel, offers travellers the opportunity to dive into the island's local creative scene. Far from the usual tourist paths, Mallorca's artists and artisans open their studios, inviting visitors to have a meaningful creative and cultural exchange.
